UGA Cortona Studies Abroad Program

Benvenuto!

Since 1970, the University of Georgia Studies Abroad Program in Cortona, Italy, has been a leader in international education. This Program provides a challenging opportunity for students to earn UGA credit while living and studying internationally.

The medieval hill town of Cortona offers a rich historical environment where students can easily integrate into the lifestyle of a typical Italian community. With a variety of course offerings in art history, studio art, sciences, and humanities, the Cortona Program continues a tradition of excellence unmatched by any other program in the nation.
